From: daacstar@yahoo.com
Sent: Monday, December 17, 2007 9:58 AM PT
To: estela@estelabravo.com
Cc: rest; sara@estelabravo.com; ernesto@estelabravo.com
Subject: Dear Ms. Estela Bravo - I am currently watching your 2001 movie Fidel and would like to share with you some of my unique "insights" with you.

I am an ex White South African who left South Africa in early 1978 and although I have yet to finish watching your most excellent movie I am quite certain it is highly unlikely you are going to cover the rather unique relationship between Nelson Mandela and the United States of America who provided the “remnants” of Hitler’s 3rd Reich the most extraordinary “safe haven” in South Africa sitting atop the world’s richest mineral resources, apart from oil, beginning immediately following the not exactly “defeat” of Nazi Germany.

At least equal in importance, there is every possibility that I am going to have published today a short story book written by a colleague of mine that will very possibly make reference to your documentary, very specifically that first meeting between Nelson Mandela and Fidel Castro.

As an introduction to you and I opening up a meaningful dialogue may I suggest you read very carefully Mr. Mandela’s 11,700 word, “I am Prepared to Die” speech from the dock of the Pretoria, South Africa, Supreme Court back on April 20th, 1964.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Gary Gevisser

[Word 216]